Ultimate Litigation Bundle ↩

Nov 29th, 2014

Without a doubt, Lit Software offers the two best litigation apps available on the iPad. TrialPad covers all of your presentation needs while TranscriptPad provides fantastic transcript review capabilities.

With such a powerful duo, it only makes sense that Lit Software now offers the Ultimate Litigation Bundle where you can purchase both apps for $159.99 (a savings of $20) versus purchasing separately at $89.99 per app.

However, come Monday & Tuesday, Lit Software is offering the bundle for $99.99. With this pricing, Lit Software is essentially holding a buy-one-get-one-free sale. And, if you have already purchased either TrialPad or TranscriptPad, you can pay the difference when purchasing the bundle meaning you would get the other app for only $9.99.

If you've been waiting to purchase one or both of these essential apps for litigators, do not hesitate to grab the Ultimate Litigation Bundle. Even if you miss the sale, you still save $20 purchasing the bundle. Totally a no brainer.

Also, stay tuned as I will be offering tips & tricks on using both of these apps when preparing for trial and while in the courtroom.
